1st VERSE

Key of C concert

Through the winter's ice and cold, down Ni-co-lett A-ven-ue, a cit-y a - flame fought fire and ice 'neath an oc-cu - pi - er's boots. King Trump's pri-va-te ar - my from the D H S, guns belt-ed to their coats, came to Min-ne-a - po-lis to enf-force the law. Or so their sto - ry goes. A-against (Trump's)

2nd-3rd VERSES (& Solos, extra Verses) smoke and rub - ber bul - lets in the dawn's ear - ly light. Cit-i-zens stood for justice, their voic-es ring-ing through the night. And there were blood-y foot-federal thugs beat up C on his face and his chest. Then we heard the gun

 - tice, their voic-es ring-ing through the night. And there were blood-y foot-shots and Al-ex Pretti lay in the snow dead. Their claim was self de-fense,
 - prints where mer - cy should have stood. And two dead left to die on sir; just don't be - lieve your eyes. G7 It's our blood and bones and these snow-filled streets: AL - EX PRET - TI and RE - NEE GOOD. Oh our whistles and phones a - faint Miller and Noem's dirty lies

C CHORUS

Min-ne-a - po-lis I hear your voice. sing-ing through the blood-y mist. We'll
